YORK

UNIVERSITÉ UNIVERSITY

香港作為亞洲的第二大金融中心，以及加拿大外商直接投資的主要來源，對加拿大乃至全世界都起著舉足輕重的作用。約克大學致力於透過環保計劃、研究項目和學術交流計劃進一步發展和維繫與香港的關係。約克大學熱烈歡迎來自香港的學生加入這個多元文化共融的大家庭。

約克大學位於加拿大首屈一指的金中心和國際化都會多倫多，是加拿大頂尖的跨學科教學及研究型大學，秉承現代教育理念，為莘莘學子提供大學本科和研究生課程。約克的基爾校區是一個設施完善的校區，同時也是全球研究和資訊中心。格蘭登校區則是加拿大同類學校中唯一全面實行雙語教學的校區，學生修讀以英語和法語教學的課程，通常還會進修第三語言。約克大學仰賴朝氣蓬勃和安全的社區環境，以及相輔相成的學術和課外活動，吸引世界各地的學子慕名而至。

YORK OFFERS THE BEST OF CANADA

CALLING CANADA HOME

People from Hong Kong feel right at home in Canada – in fact, 200,000+ Hong Kong immigrants currently reside in Canada, with 300,000+ people of Chinese origin in Toronto specifically, and 42,000+ enrolled in Canadian academic institutions. Students can become permanent residents in Canada after completing their studies.

CAREERS IN CANADA

Canada's industry similarities to Hong Kong make students from there very desirable to Canadian companies. York graduates have access to Canada's increasing job opportunities, competitive wages, excellent living standards and employers that excel in industries like aerospace, business, digital media and renewable energy. International students can work on and off campus during their studies and for up to three years after graduating by securing a work permit.

約克大學資料數據

133 位來自香港和 2,107 位來自中國內地的本科生和研究生。
1,918 位來自香港的約克國際校友。

超過 300 個學生社團和組織，其中香港學生協會曾主辦一系列大型和小型活動，致力於推廣香港學生之間的文化、社交和業務聯繫。

YORK'S COMMITMENTS

York is committed to academic excellence, student engagement and increasing international student presence on campus. York recognizes the unique opportunities and partnerships that are made possible because of its location within a dynamic metropolitan and multicultural environment.

INTERNATIONAL DEGREES

Offering 100+ exchange agreements with 100+ universities worldwide, and more than 30 programs with an international component (such as an internship abroad), York students earn degrees that are recognized globally. By graduation, students are prepared for international success. The numbers say it all: six months after graduation, 92 per cent of York graduates are employed.

ACADEMIC STRENGTHS

Earn a degree in Business Administration or Administrative Studies from the highly ranked Schulich School of Business or explore the sciences, from Biology and Biomedical Science to Pharmaceutical Chemistry.

Join York's new Lassonde School of Engineering, with streams in Geomatics, Space, Software and Electrical, and a new engineering building housing state-of-the-art labs and tutorial spaces.

Study fine arts, concentrating in dance, design, film, music or theatre, in York's 330,000-sq. ft. performing arts complex.

重點學術領域

名列前茅的舒立克商學院攻讀工商管理或行政學位，或生物學、生物醫學和藥物化學等理學士學位。

約克大學最新落成的拉松德工程學院新建的工程樓，為攻讀測繪、空間設計、軟件和機電專業的學子提供了設施一流的教室、實驗室和教學空間。

此外，約克大學佔地 33 萬呎的藝術綜合教學大樓，為攻讀美術、舞蹈、設計、電影、音樂或戲劇領域的美術學位學生營造了學術氣氛濃厚的環境。

FOSTERING STUDENT SUCCESS

SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

York International, our friendly and welcoming central office for international students, offers orientation, information sessions, social activities, job search assistance and mentors for new students.

York's Learning Skills program helps students improve their time management, note-taking and essay-writing abilities, while the Learning Commons provides additional skills training in one easy-to-access campus location. Students requiring language support can turn to the English as a Second Language Open Learning Centre for help.

A SAFE, SECURE CAMPUS

At York, we take the safety of our students seriously. Our Security Services department works with community partners to develop a holistic approach to safety for our campus community.

SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

York awarded more than $4.7 million CAD in financial assistance to international students in 2011-2012. International Entrance Scholarships range from $500 to $100,000, and help support the needs of our international students while also encouraging their academic success.

York University values diversity and is committed to promoting a culture of mutual respect and inclusivity on campus.

DIVERSITY ON CAMPUS

MULTICULTURALISM

York University is part of Toronto, a city where 100+ languages are spoken and half of the population was born outside of Canada. York students come from 180 countries worldwide and their diversity is celebrated during Multicultural Week, an annual event showcasing 60 student cultural groups through stage performances, informative displays and food tastings.

RELIGIOUS SPACES ON CAMPUS

The Scott Religious Centre provides a welcoming chapel for religious services and a peaceful meditation room for individual introspection and quiet prayer. It also provides office space for many of the faith-based student clubs.

RELIGIOUS STUDENT GROUPS ON CAMPUS

York respects the rights of the many faiths represented in our student body and has numerous student-run religious organizations that are active on campus. Such groups include:

- Youth Interfaith Council
- Christian Students at York
- Muslim Students Association
- Sikh Students Association

York University is committed to respecting the religious beliefs and practices of all members of its community and making accommodations for observances of special significance to adherents.

YOUR CAREER STARTS AT YORK

York University recognizes the importance of understanding this region and its relationship to Canada and the rest of the world. And when it comes to Hong Kong, our academic connections run deep.

RESEARCH & INNOVATION WORLDWIDE

York's connections with Hong Kong range from economic and academic to humanitarian, with 14 York professors holding degrees from Hong Kong universities and 72 from China. Professors and students at York recognize the importance of this region, which is why they spend a substantial amount of time studying it each year.

YORK OFFERS PAID INTERNSHIPS

York's internship programs provide students with hands-on work experience with some of Canada's top employers. Students earn a salary, explore potential career options and build a valuable network of industry contacts. Students in our Technology Internship Program, for example, earn an average of $38,000 in a 12-month term.

CONNECTING STUDENTS WITH JOBS AND EMPLOYERS

Last year, York's Career Centre posted 8,500+ employment opportunities with companies across Canada. Top employers also visit campus to connect with students at fairs, panels and other events. For students needing help with interviewing or resume-writing skills, there are more than 325 skills workshops offered throughout the year, in addition to private assistance options.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE IS JUST THE START

Students can take part in York's International Internship Program, get work experience in a new country and receive $3,000 from York to help get there. Alternatively, they can take one of our international degree programs, requiring a year of study abroad, to lay the groundwork for a global career.

RESEARCH IN HONG KONG

- Business professor Russell W. Belk's study, "Materialistic value and status brand consumption among generation cohorts in China," in collaboration with Hong Kong University faculty members, is being funded by the Hong Kong Social Science Research Council.
- Education professor Jill Bell took a two-year teaching leave in Hong Kong, allowing her to extend her language research into the relationship between alphabetic and non-alphabetic literacies.
- Film professor and Hong Kong native Suzie S.F. Young specializes in Asian cinema, including New Wave Cinemas of the three Chinas.
- Design professor Wendy Wong has published extensively on Hong Kong visual culture and history, and has been funded by the Hong Kong Arts Development Council.

CONNECTIONS AT YORK

- History professor Bernard Luk was vice-president of Hong Kong's Institute of Education for 4 years.
- Schulich School of Business professor Peter Darke held a visiting professorship at Hong Kong University of Science & Technology.
- York offers international exchange opportunities to the Hong Kong Institute of Education and the University of Hong Kong.
- York has a four-year undergraduate degree in East Asian Studies.
- The Kellogg-Schulich Executive MBA program offers global elective courses at the Hong Kong University of Science & Technology.

Students get hands-on research experience through York's iRAY program, which gives students paid positions assisting Canada's top researchers on campus.

Environments

BEING A YORK STUDENT

Annette's passion for ecology and the environment led her to York's unique Environmental Studies program.

"Since my faculty is so small, getting to know people has been easy," she says. "I joined the Hong Kong Students Association last year, which helped me feel at home."

After graduation, Annette plans to get her master's in zoology and have a fulfilling career in animal research.

報讀約克大學

對生態學和環境學情有獨鍾的 Annette，報讀了約克獨特的環境研究課程。

「因為我就讀的學院比較小，所以很容易結識朋友。」Annette 說，「我去年加入了香港學生協會，很快便融入了新的環境。」

Annette 計劃畢業後繼續攻讀動物學碩士課程，並立志從事動物研究工作。
