Protection of Privacy

York University gathers and maintains information for the purposes of admission, registration and other fundamental activities related to being a member of the University community and to attending a public postsecondary institution in the Province of Ontario. When signing an application for admission, you should know that the information you provide, and any other information placed into your student record, will be protected and used in compliance with Ontario's Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. The information on this form is collected under the authority of The York University Act, 1965 and is needed for educational, administrative and statistical purposes and to process your application for admission. The information will be used to verify qualifications and decide your eligibility for admission. Upon admission and registration, this information will form part of your student record and will be used to document your progress in an academic program.

If you have any questions about the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information by York University, please contact the Manager, Information Services, Bennett Centre for Student Services, York University, 99 Ian Macdonald BLVD, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M3J 1P3, 416-736-5000. yorku.ca/ipo

Disposal of Records

All documents must be originals. Replaceable documents become the property of York University and will not be returned. We keep supporting documents for one year, after which we destroy materials related to your application. If the request is made upon application, irreplaceable documents will be returned to the original document holder.

To complete this application, you must read and sign this page.
This application will not be accepted without a signature.
