Big university. Intimate campus.

When you choose to study here, you are also choosing to study at York University, the third largest university in Canada.

Thus you can enjoy an intimate campus with the large university resources, support system and network.

With its smaller size, Glendon is the perfect choice for those who want to be part of a large university, while studying on a campus where people – faculty, staff and other students – know you by your name.

Amazing things happen when diverse communities work together to tackle world issues. When York University students apply their knowledge, they have the power to make things right. Join us in creating positive change. yorku.ca/rightthefuture

RIGHT THE FUTURE™

See the Glendon campus through the eye of a drone

Or in a 3D virtual tour

Or at an Open House or upcoming events

Welcome to Glendon, a faculty of York University, located on a picturesque, park-like campus uniquely positioned in midtown Toronto. Over more than a half-century, Glendon has built a reputation for providing a future-oriented, globally engaged, supportive, diverse, and inclusive learning environment where students can assess their limits and challenge them to reach their full potential. Beyond an education, here you get a transformative experience: you will not be the same person once you cross the stage to collect your degree. Join us and be part of generations who proudly claim Glendon as theirs.

We offer a rich, immersive learning environment that enhances your experience, thanks to all the languages spoken on campus and of all the cultures celebrated throughout the year. We are diverse by design, not by chance. We are a reflection of today's world, and we prepare our students for tomorrow's challenges.

I invite you to start a conversation with us. Reach out to our student ambassadors, come to an Open House and talk to our faculty – we're here to help you make your dreams come true, every step of the way.

I look forward to meeting you soon.

-Marco Fiola, Principal, Glendon

Want to keep your options open for a little while?

Take the first year to explore your options by choosing our Undecided Major. You'll begin your university studies without having to select a program until the end of your first year at Glendon. Going this route will allow you to explore your talents, discover your passion and gain some insight on the career paths available to you, all without missing a beat in your educational journey. The credits you earn in your first year are then transferred to your degree program.

Still undecided?

Take this quiz and discover which program might be a good fit for you.

Enhance your learning experience

Our certificates are designed to complement your academic studies with applied skills and knowledge. All certificates can be taken in conjunction with a York bachelor-level program. Those indicated with an asterisk (*) are also available as a stand-alone certificate for degree holders.

Glendon Certificates

- Certificate in Creative Writing Across Contexts*
- Certificate in Law and Social Thought
- Certificate in Refugee and Migration Studies*
- Interdisciplinary Certificate in Public History
- Certificate in Spanish for Business and Professional Communication*
- Certificate in Spanish/English – English/Spanish Translation*
- Certificate in the Discipline of Teaching English as an International Language (D-TEIL)*
- Certificate in Technical and Professional Communication*
- Certificate in Sexuality Studies*

Why not do a double major or add a minor?

Double Majors

Once you are admitted to Glendon in the major of your choice, you will have an opportunity to choose a second major from all subjects we offer. Students who decide to complete a double major often want one major that is more career-oriented, and one that meets their quest for fundamental knowledge for personal growth. Regardless the reason, completing a double major provides you with a structured and organized pathway to graduation.

Minors

Do you like the idea of adding a second topic, but wish have more freedom with your course choices? Perhaps a minor is the right choice for you. Unlike certificates, minors must be completed within the same timeframe as the major, and they are less career-focused than certificates. Minors can be achieved on the Glendon or Keele campuses.

Minors at Glendon Campus

Explore your options and build your own degree

Choose your major and combine it with another major, minor, or certificate. The credits earned for the certificates sometimes also count for the major, minor or elective credits. Ask an academic advisor to help you put a plan in place during your enrolment appointment, in the summer before your first year.

We are the ONLY university campus in Canada to offer International Bachelor degrees (iBA/iBSc) across all of our programs. Our unique international bachelor degrees prepare our students for success in the global workforce by bringing international perspectives and experiences to a university degree.

What is the Core Curriculum?

All Glendon students benefit from a series of new and innovative courses aimed at providing the foundation for their intellectual growth and academic success. Gaining transferable and marketable skills will prepare them for graduate studies or for a career.

Hands-on learning & work experience

Experiential Education is the application of what you learn in the classroom to solve a real-life problem. It can take the form of a work placement, an internship, volunteering for an organization, among others. Employers look at your degree, but they also look at the skills you have gained in every year of your program.

Get a work placement opportunity, no matter your program

Gain valuable professional experience by completing a credited work placement with our exclusive partners.

FIRST YEAR EXAMPLE

Enhance your learning through a field trip at the Don Valley Brick Works Park, focusing on ecological restoration and green infrastructures.

SECOND YEAR EXAMPLE

Participate in a community-based work experience with a cultural organisation in Toronto.

THIRD YEAR EXAMPLE

Simulate the challenges faced by professional data scientists and confidently tackle them with high tech tools like Python programming and machine learning.

FOURTH YEAR EXAMPLE

Complete a professional work placement to gain professional experience in your discipline like a paid digital marketing placement with the Canadian Film Centre.

Home or abroad, the choice is yours

Over 100 active partners for work placements in Toronto including Amnesty International, the Hockey Hall of Fame, the Ontario Public Service and Consulate General of France.

Our students have completed placements around the world in Los Angeles, New York, France, Morocco, Ghana, Peru, Vietnam, Spain and Egypt, just to name a few.

Earn credits towards your degree

All Glendon work placements guarantee course credit upon completion of a career preparation course.

Gain access to our exclusive partners list to set up a work placement of up to 240 hours while you take courses at the same time.

Entrepreneurship and management

Professor profile

Professor Angelo Dossou-Yovo

International Studies and Business Administration (Dual Degree with emlyon in France) Professor Dossou-Yovo's research interests include the growth process of small businesses, innovation systems and international entrepreneurship. Aside from his work in the classroom, he is the founder of GENIAL, an acronym for Glendon ENTREpreneuriat et Innovation À L'international.

Embrace your entrepreneurial spirit

GENIAL is a business incubator that provides courses in entrepreneurship and extracurricular activities such as workshops, conferences, start-up hackathons, business plan and business model competitions. All student entrepreneurs can participate, no matter their language or area of study.

Flexible and immersive: that's what we are

You thought you had to be bilingual to study at Glendon? Think again! Glendon is a community where people from all around the world come to experience our dual language immersive environment. We know that studying another language opens minds, and it opens doors. All students take a minimum of two language courses, usually in their first year. Those who like to take more – and many students do – achieve a Bilingual Degree.

Admission Requirements (It's not what you might think!)

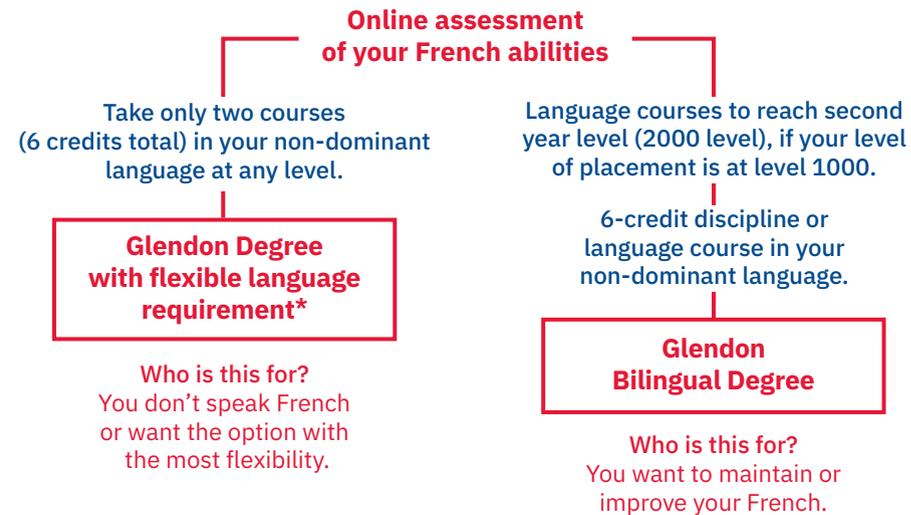

In most of our programs, knowledge of either English or French is all it takes. New students cover the full range of language fluency, from being strictly monolingual (speaking one language only) to being multilingual, and they are all welcome to Glendon.

Pick your path

The right degree for you is based on your comfort level and an assessment of your current knowledge of the language.

*If English is your dominant language, these programs are flexible: Business Economics, Economics, English, Spanish and Latin American Cultures and Societies, History, International Studies, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology (BA only), Sociology.

*If French is your dominant language: Science politique.

Rajdeep's path to the Glendon Degree

"I had enrolled at Glendon, hearing great things about the campus. My French was quite weak since I only took it in grade 9. When I was told of a flexible option by my academic advisor, I knew I had to take it!"

It helped me make space to focus on my program while adding a minor and a certificate so that I can pursue my dreams of becoming an international English teacher and help improve the education rate for kids around the world."

Rajdeep Gill

It pays to gain language skills

All degrees at Glendon include a language component; we call it the Glendon Advantage! Studying a new language enables you to gain new communication skills, but it also helps you gain a new perspective on the world, and navigate and manage diversity more effectively, a sought-after skill in today's world.

Multilingualism and intercultural competency are skills in high demand

- If you want to impact the world with a global career, the ability to conduct business in more than one language with people from a variety of cultural backgrounds is increasingly critical.
- A worldwide focus on public health and environmental issues calls for more graduates who can work in the science professions, in increasingly multilingual and multicultural contexts.
- Bilingual (English-French) employees are generally paid anywhere from 10% to 30% more in the local job market than monolingual candidates

Dedicated Language Resources
Boost your academic writing, reading, conversations and culture.

- Language Training Centre for Studies in French
- Salon Francophone
- Leslie Frost Library
- Spanish Resource Centre
- ESL Open Learning Centre

Watch testimonials about bilingualism from our students:

French, English and Spanish are official working languages of major organizations, and you can study in all three at Glendon.

Language can really take you places

Take your Language Advantage to the next level by going on exchange! It is a great way to get noticed by employers: the language skills acquired – whether learning French in France or Belgium, or Spanish in Costa Rica, Mexico or Spain – can only benefit you in the future.

Land acknowledgement

York University recognizes that many Indigenous Nations have longstanding relationships with the territories upon which York University campuses are located that precede the establishment of York University. York University acknowledges its presence on the traditional territory of many Indigenous Nations. The area known as Tkaronto has been care taken by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, and the Huron-Wendat. It is now home to many First Nations, Inuit and Métis communities. We acknowledge the current treaty holders, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory is subject of the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement to peaceably share and care for the Great Lakes region.

Take it step by step

STEP

1 Respect deadlines

Make sure you apply before the deadline! Otherwise, you run the risk of not being admitted.

STEP

2 Check the requirements

Make sure to check what courses you will need to have completed to be considered for admission, and anything else your chosen program requires. If additional information is needed as part of the application process, you can expect to receive an email from us after you have applied.

4

Stay on top of your application

Once you have applied, you'll receive your York U student number. Enter this number in MyFile, the York student portal at yorku.ca/myfile to track the status of your application online, and check the status of your supporting documents. Make sure you pay attention to email and mail messages from York University.

STEP

3 Submit

OUAC is the provincial online portal for all Ontario high school student university applications. You simply enter your information and click to submit.

Applicants from outside Ontario (including high school students, university and college transfer students and mature students) can submit their application through OUAC.on.ca or through York University at futurestudents.yorku.ca/requirements/apply, and must ask their previous institution(s) to send their transcripts directly to: Office of Admissions, York University Bennett Centre for Student Services – 3rd Floor Reception 99 Ian Macdonald Blvd Toronto, ON M3J 1P3

Important dates

Here is what you can do to be on track with your admission to Glendon and keep in touch with us.

September – December 2023

Join us for our Fall Campus Day: Open House – November 25. You'll have the chance to speak with our professors and learn about the services we offer.

January – April 2024

January 12, 2024 is the Fall 2024 application deadline for all Ontario high school students; applicants from Canadian international schools; and high school students from Canadian provinces outside Ontario.

Submit your supplementary documentation if you applied to a program that requires supplementary evaluation (Concurrent Education and iBA/BBA dual degree in Business Administration and International Studies).

You don't have to wait to receive an offer of admission to complete the Scholarships and Bursaries application. Submit it early so that you are considered for the most awards possible (from both Glendon and York) – some deadlines are as early as February 15 while the MyFile application closes April 1.

Join us for our Spring events to experience Glendon and discover what it's like to be a student here.

- March Break U – March 11–15, 2024
- Experience Glendon: Spring Open House

Keep checking MyFile and your email account, which you provided on your application, for updates to the status of your application.

Ask your questions to a student already enrolled in the program that interests you. Easily book a 15-minute chat with a member of the Glendon Virtual Network!

Congrats, you made it!

Take a moment to celebrate, but don't forget these next steps.

June 2024

The deadline for Ontario high school students to accept their offer is June 1, 2024. As soon as you have accepted your offer, book your enrolment appointment on MyFile. Your course enrolment access time will be emailed to you.

Apply for residence by June 1 if applicable. Your room will be assigned to you in mid-July.

Apply for OSAP by June 30 to ensure your funds are available in early September. Notify the Office of Admissions if you are enrolling in summer school. Your final transcript is required in August.

July – August 2024

Get ready for classes and Orientation! Important dates for the 2024–2025 school year will be posted online in the summer of 2024.

Budget for the year ahead. Consider applying for a job on campus through the work-study program or look into applying for a bursary. Scan the code for details.

Late August 2024

Glendon Orientation Week – make new friends! You'll have the support of YU START student leaders and GL Zone peer mentors to help you transition to Glendon.

Early September 2024

Glendon Orientation (GO) Day
